PARKDALE METHODIST CHURCH
Una Bethune (Mrs. John K. Barnes)

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was organized into a circuit about the year 1847, the Rev. John Stanford, M.D. being the preacher in charge. He was succeeded in 1848 by Rev. Mr. Finn. Rev. Peter Haskin followed in 1849; James H. Andrews in 1850; Rev. Bononi Harris in 1851; J.S. McCarrer in 1852; and H.R. Withers in 1853. The circuit embraced the whole county until 1867 or 1868 when it was divided, the west half being called Hamburg Circuit, and the east half the Bartholomew Circuit. These have also since been divided, till now there is a single station church at Hamburg and three circuits, the Hamburg Circuit, situated in the southwestern part of the county, the Fountain Circuit, in the northern part of the county, and the Bartholomew Circuit, in the eastern part of the county.

Poplar Bluff, the original name of Parkdale, Arkansas, was in the eastern, or Bartholomew Circuit under the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. Bushing. Poplar Bluff landing was in the early days of Ashley County the second town of the county in size and commercial importance, located on the east bank of Bayou Bartholomew, was incorporated in January, 1889. The Methodist and Baptist churches and school-house are there.

Long before the above was recorded and the Poplar Bluff church was organized, the people of Poplar Bluff did not neglect the spiritual side of their lives. Since the landing for steam boats was naturally the center of the community activity it was also natural that here too, should the activity of the church and school be centered. It was traditional in those days for the church and school district to jointly build and share the same building.

In the early 1850's a two-story building was erected where the Parkdale cemetery is now located. This building served until the late 1800's when a log structure was built on the site that is now described as Lot 12, Tract 9 of the Richardson Survey.

In 1904, under the leadership of the Rev. J.R. Dickerson and with both site and lumber donated by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Morris a new Methodist church was built, this time near the center of town and to the immediate east of the present church. Mr. Dickerson returned to Parkdale in 1920 and six years later built the church that presently serves the Methodist membership. This church is located on a site donated by Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Morschheimer, and is constructed of concrete blocks that were moulded and cured on the site.

Two young men who grew up in the Parkdale Methodist church and later became ministers are Horace McMillan and Cephas Barton. There were two Parkdale school superintendents that, soon after leaving Parkdale, also became ministers. They were Mr. Nat R. Griswold and his immediate successor, Mr. Gilbert F. Hyde.

Dear Editor:

Loved your Antioch Church records because I have so many ancestors buried there and it is such a land mark in Ashley County. However - there was one thing I would like to bring to your attention since it might lead someone astray.

The record of burials for F. W. and Nancy Miller was correct. He is Francis Washington Miller and he married Nancy Honeycutt in Winston Co., Miss. September 20, 1847. They then came on to Ashley County in 1848. I am enclosing a family group sheet which might be helpful to others. It is well proven.

I have never been able to identify the Flavius F. Miller. He does not belong to this family, however.

Sincerely yours,

Louise S. White

Dear Rebecca,

I believe on page 37 ,of the new Kin Kollecting the marriage of Flavius _____ Miller is not the correct marriage of these people buried there.

Nancy D. Boyd was born in 1830/31 and was the daughter of Oliver & Nancy D. Files.

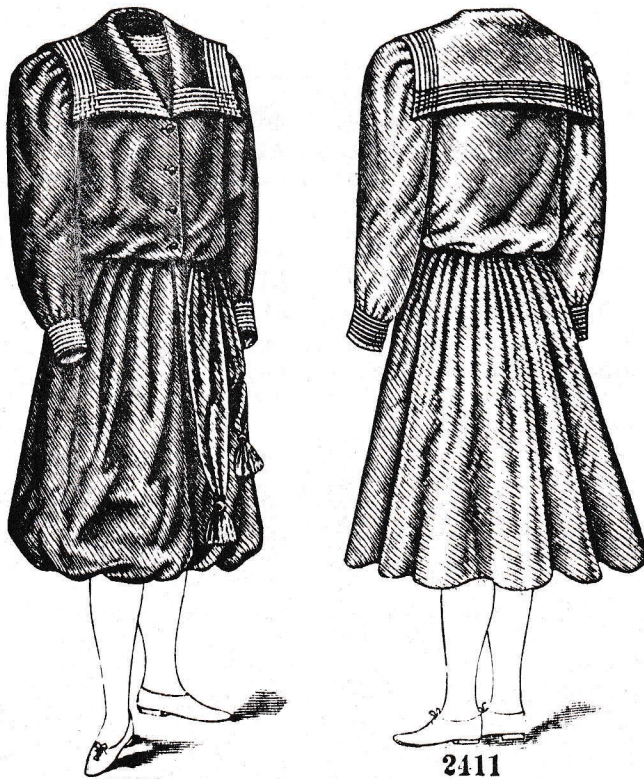

Nancy Files of Ashley Co. married Charles S. Boyd of Bradley Co. 6 March 1855(Book AA, p.28) I do not know what happened to him. The on 4 Jan. 1859 she married Flavius (I copied J.) Miller. I haven't been able to find a tombstone for any of them. Then in the 1870 Ashley Co. census she is living in her father's household with her daughter, Joseph Miller.

Joe Miller married Greenwood Pugh. She is buried in the Hamburg Cemetery. Her tombstone has Joe Miller Pugh, b. 18 Dec. 1859, d. 28 Oct. 1920. Greenwood Pugh is buried in the Snyder Cemetery.

I am enclosing a Family Group sheet of Oliver Files' family. Also am enclosing my check to renew my membership.

Fondly,

Johnnie
